

Baking & Volunteering at Heckington Windmill

Would you like to learn new skills, share your baking knowledge and be part of exciting developments at Heckington Windmill?

A new Baking Group is starting up. We will learn together and test out recipes using the Windmill flour. We meet on Fridays in the Mill House Tea Rooms (in future in the new Bakehouse demonstration kitchen). Keen cooks and complete novices all welcome!

We also want new volunteers to help serve in the Tea Rooms at weekends and in school holidays. If you are looking for experience in catering or just want to help out in a friendly and interesting place, this is for you!

To find out more:

email tearooms@heckingtonwindmill.org.uk or pop in to the Tea Rooms on a weekend between 12 and 5 (4 until Easter) and speak to Veronica or Laura.
